

“Growth is the only guarantee tomorrow will be better.”

- John C. Maxwell

Looking to grow yourself as a leader? If you are between the ages of 13-19, we have an opportunity for you to explore and practice leadership. Cornerstone Basketball will be partnering with the Maxwell Leadership Foundation to provide 4 eight-week “virtual/in person” group sessions on leadership geared towards students.

There is no cost to participate, but participants will need to commit to meeting for one hour a week. Groups will begin Oct 2 at 5:00.

About Us :

At Cornerstone Basketball, our mission is to empower students from 3rd to 12th grade to achieve their dreams both on and off the court. As a 501(c)(3) organization, we are dedicated to developing basketball skills while instilling essential values like respect, accountability, and leadership, preparing our youth for success in all aspects of life

Contact Gene Lilley to register!

